YOUTH SUMMER ACTIVITIES

Join us for four weeks of Libraries Rock fun! Youth ages 5 and up may make a musical instrument, experiment with shadows and light, make garden rocks, visit a local fairy/toad garden and draw with mirrors! Tuesdays 3:30-4:45 pm. Receive a ticket for the Summer Reading Program for each event you attend! July 10th -August 7th. Free, please register.

HUMAN LIBRARY

Check out a person at the Ainsworth Public Library! In this unique program, you may sit with a volunteer and ask questions, or just listen to them tell their stories. Saturday, July 14th at 11 am, you may reserve a LGBTQIA (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Intersex, Asexual) Person. Free, please register.

ANTIQUe PIN DISPLAY

Saturday, July 21st at 10am, Join Board Member Helen Duke in making a lovely Antique Pin Display. If you haven't attended one of Helen's craft events, you need to find out what you have been missing! Free, but space is limited, so please register.

FAMILY NIGHT

Learn how to make a book with our Clerk, Tammy Bousquet, that you can journal in, put your spells in or draw in. All Ages. Please register. Everyone makes a book to take home! Friday, July 13th at 6pm.

SUPPORT YOUR LOCAL LIBRARY

Stop by the library Saturday, July 14th anytime between 9am and 1pm during the town wide yard sale event and peruse our "Garage Sale." We will have books and other goodies available for purchase on the lawn. You just may find a special treasure! All proceeds benefit the library.

ELDER FIELD TALK

We are delighted to have author Adam Boyce share stories and facts about Rev. Daniel "Elder" Field (1805-1883) from his latest release, "What Say You, Elder..." Retiring to Williamstown, Vermont, in 1863, Field purchased a small farm, where he and his family stayed until his death in 1883. This engaging talk is free and open to the public.
