DRAG QUEEN STORYTIME

Ainsworth Public Library

Join us on Friday, June 15 at 6pm
Nikki and Emoji will read stories and do a craft with us. This event is part of the library's weekly 'Diversity Story Time' events planned for each Friday night in June, in celebration of LGBTQIA+ Pride Month!

All ages welcome. FREE.
No registration required.

FAMILY NIGHT

Friday, June 1st at 6pm, join volunteer Elaine Stehel for LGBTQIA Pride Family Night. We will be celebrating diversity and inclusion through stories and a craft. Everyone is welcome. FREE. Call or email to register.

STORY TIME

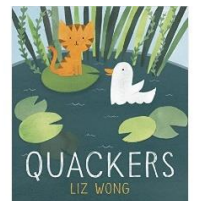

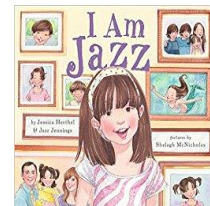

Join our VELL-STEM certified Librarian, Sarah Snow every Wednesday at 10 am as she brings stories to life, sings songs and does a craft with your children. This is a wonderful way to prepare your youngster for pre-school. Ages birth- 7 years. Come play with us! FREE.

MAKE A WREATH

Join Helen Duke in making a fun Summer wreath. The workshop takes place Saturday, June 16th at 10 am. Space is limited, so email or call to reserve your spot! FREE

FRIDAY NIGHT STORYTIMES

Join volunteer Elaine Stehel for Diversity Story Time Friday evenings in June. Elaine will read stories, have a share time and a snack. Come to one, or all. No need to register, just show up. This event is FREE and all are welcome!

BOOK SALE SUCCESS

Thank you to all of the Friends of the Library who volunteered to bake, move books and work the book sale! The weather held out and it was a successful event; making the library $533.75. We would also like to thank our patrons for your generous contributions!
