NEWSLETTER | August 2018

CALLING ALL BIBLIOPHILES!

Join us Friday, August 3rd from 6-7pm at our Family Night and learn how to make a book. Each participant gets a book to take home. All ages; call or stop in to sign-up.

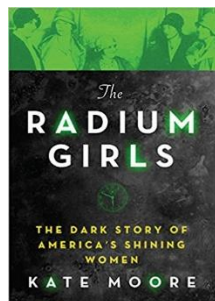

DRAW WITH MIRRORS

As part of our Summer Reading Program for youth, join us in drawing with mirrors. Science and Art will overlap in this fun project. Earn a ticket for coming! Ages 5 and up. Free, please register.

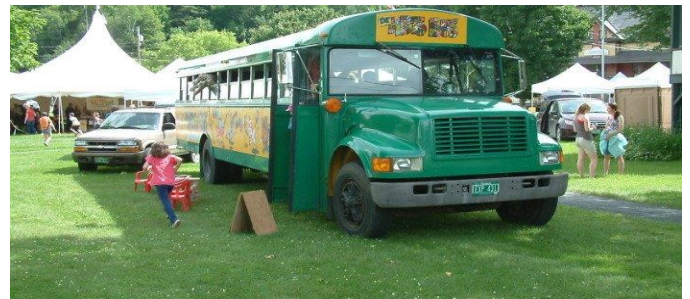

SENIOR BOOK GROUP

The Senior Book Group, currently reading Radium Girls, meets the first Monday of every month at The Gardens in Williamstown at 4pm. The group is open to anyone and is free. You do not need to belong to the library to participate. Join us for lively discussions, shared stories and light refreshments. Just show up!

EXORDIUM PERFORMANCE

We are pleased Kurt Valenta of Exordium was able to fit us into his summer schedule! His events are always hands-on, engaging and full of fun. Join him here at the library Wednesday, August 8th at 4pm to make Pan Pipes..

ARTS BUS VISIT SAT 8/11 9-11AM

Kids, art, creativity, innovation and FUN! This is what Arts Bus is all about! On the road since 2010, Arts Bus, a traveling art studio, music space and free library, engages children, ages 1-14, in the creative process through free arts education. When a child (or adult, as Arts Bus welcomes families and child care providers too!), comes aboard the bus they will find a plethora of exciting, innovative activities prepared for them to enjoy: ceramics, music and movement, painting, visual arts, writing and storytelling, paper arts, theater and drama, clowning and mime. . .the list goes on, limited only by the boundless imaginations of our artists and the children themselves. FREE!
