YOU DON'T WANT TO MISS THIS!

The Williamstown Harvest Craft Festival is the place to be on Saturday, October 3rd from 10am-3pm. Stop by the Ainsworth Public Library's table to purchase your Blue Devil HOME kit (all proceeds go to APL) and call, email or FB message to pre register for the Arts Bus program which begins at 12:45pm.

Discover the seven senses of art, travel the world of imagination, sing with puppets and dance with trolls! Seating is limited and all attendees must wear masks and stay physically distanced. There will also be a chicken BBQ and fireworks at dusk!

BROWSE ONLINE

Do you miss browsing our wonderful book collection in person? Be sure to check out our weekly New Adult Book Videos. Find the link on the top banner on our website www.ainsworthpubliclibrary.org. Our thoughtful staff is also happy to help talk you through selections for curbside pickup as well as put together a bag of books for you based on your interests!

FREE PUMPKINS

Beginning Monday, October 12th, we will be giving away free pumpkins to youth ages 1-18 via curbside pickup. Contact the library by calling, emailing or Facebook messaging to receive one. Many thanks to Jayne and Lee Rouleau for their generosity in providing us with these beautiful pumpkins.

TRUNK OR TREAT

Help make trick or treating safe this year. If you are a business or family interested in decorating a trunk or canopy for this exciting fundraising event on October 31st at the Williamstown Middle High School parking lot from 4-6pm, please contact the library by phone or email. Spots are $10 and all proceeds go towards purchasing library books. Admission is by donation. COVID-19 restrictions will be in place.
