

AINSWORTH PUBLIC LIBRARY

NEWSLETTER | SEPTEMBER 2020

EXPANDED HOURS

You asked and we listened. We are now offering curbside pickup of library materials on Saturdays from 10:30am-1:30pm. Beginning Tuesday, September 15th, we will add hours on Tuesday from 10am-5:30pm. You may call, facebook message or email us your order. You may also place it by putting holds on items in our catalog.

HARVEST CRAFT FESTIVAL

Join APL and the Williamstown community at the Williamstown Harvest Craft Festival from 10am-3pm at Seaver Field on Depot Street Saturday, October 3rd. Come find our table, stop by and say hello! The Arts Bus will be hosting a puppet show at the festival. You may register for this free event by calling us or sending an email. Masks will be required and seating is limited.

STORYTIME

We will continue to offer our interactive Zoom storytimes throughout the fall. If you are new to homeschooling, or looking for additional learning to add to your portfolio this year, consider joining us. Let Ms. Snow lead your children ages birth to 7 years in an interactive lesson with stories, songs and a craft. Every Wednesday at 10am. Email us for the Zoom link.

FUNDRAISER

Support your local library and show hometown pride by purchasing one of these HOME kits. Call, email or Facebook message us to receive your kit via curbside pickup. Prices are as follows: 12x12 Kit $15, 12x12 painted with door hanger $20, Larger kits $20, 4ft painted $40, 3ft painted $30. Checks or exact cash accepted, no change will be available. Make checks out to Ainsworth Public Library. All proceeds benefit the APL. Go Blue Devils!

CLIF GRANT

The APL was awarded one of the twelve grants offered throughout Vermont and New Hampshire whose mission is to enable rural public libraries to create excitement around reading, increase circulation, and strengthen relationships with the communities we serve. In addition to adding new books to our collection and the school library's collection, this grant will provide brand books for kids to take home, storytelling presentations, and more! Keep an eye out for further details!
